TRAVEL/DOCUMENTS

A valid passport is required to enter Chile. Prior to clearing customs, you must purchase a visa, obtainable at the port of entry (Santiago) upon payment of a fee (currently $160). The visa is valid for multiple entries to Chile and remains valid until the expiration of the passport.

You will be issued a Tourist Card upon entry that must be surrendered upon departure. Customs officials can hassle or fine you if you don't have the card when exiting the country.

SANTIAGO

We suggest an overnight in Santiago to break up your travel. Time permitting, you may wish to tour the city or surrounding areas. Our office can help you with those arrangements. Available tours include, Cousiño Macul or Concha y Toro Winery and Maipo River Canyon, Historical Santiago, Panoramic Santiago, or Viña Del Mar and Valparaíso.

COYHAIQUE

Coyhaique, the capital of Region XI in southern Chile, is a three hour flight from Santiago. With a population of 37,000, Coyhaique offers good restaurants, shopping, and tourist attractions in a wilderness valley setting surrounded by the Andes and braided by the Simpson and Coyhaique Rivers.

TRAVEL LOGISTICS

Guests should plan to arrive in Balmaceda, Chile, in the afternoon on Sunday and depart the following Saturday, early afternoon. American, Delta, and Lan Chile, the Chilean National Airline, offer daily flight service to Chile. Direct flights originate from Los Angeles, Dallas, Atlanta, and Miami. Most flights depart the U.S. in the evening and arrive at Santiago International Airport the following morning. After collecting your luggage and clearing customs, proceed to the domestic terminal (a five minute walk) for the flight to Balmaceda (three hours). There you will be met by our representative and transferred to the lodge (a scenic one-hour drive). You may opt to overnight in Santiago and continue on the next day. You will be returned to the airport the following Saturday early afternoon for your flight to Santiago and points beyond.

WEATHER

Located in the southern hemisphere, Chile's seasons are reversed (our winter is their summer). Santiago's climate is warm and dry with summer temperatures ranging from lows in the 50s to highs in the 90s. Coyhaique's climate is cooler and can be wet and windy year-round with summer temperatures ranging from the 40s to the 80s.

FOOD & BEVERAGES

A breakfast buffet of coffee, tea, fruit, cereal, breads, meats and eggs are all standard fare. The lodge staff will prepare the fixings for your box lunch of soup, sandwiches, empanadas, fruit and cookies. Dinners feature international and Chilean cuisine with a flair complemented with Chilean wines. A selection of premier Chilean wines is available from the wine cellar for purchase.

THE FISHING

Fishing takes place in a variety of private and public rivers, creeks and lakes. King and silver salmon, brown and rainbow trout are available. Kings in this area are the largest in the world, but don't readily strike aggressively. One to three salmon per person per day is the norm.

Brown trout are more abundant than rainbows and range in size from ten to thirty-plus inches. Montana-size fish from 10 to 16 inches are available in good numbers and there are trophy trout 24 inches and up in all of the streams and lakes. Five to ten pound trout are caught each week, with the occasional ten pound plus fish.

Your chances for a real trophy trout are good if you are a good caster and can walk well. Chances are diminished if you are not a good caster and not in good physical condition. Many of the trophy trout locations require a 20 to 30 minute walk in steep and rough terrain. There are some alternate trout lakes that are easily accessible and we fish them via inflatable boats, as well as walking and wading. These locations require less physical effort. Keep in mind that Patagonia has varied weather. It can be warm with calm winds one day and the next day can be cool and windy.

CURRENCY

You may convert dollars to Chilean pesos at the Santiago airport. According to the U.S. Department of State Travel website, travelers might have difficulty using U.S. $100 bills due to concerns about counterfeit U.S. currency. Many Chilean banks, exchange houses and business may refuse to accept $100 bills. Bring smaller bills.

LANGUAGE

Spanish is spoken as the national language. Your host and most guides at the lodge can converse in English and other languages.

HEALTH

We suggest you contact your doctor regarding inoculations recommended for travelers to Chile, or log on to the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) website at www.cdc.gov/travel.

GRATUITIES

For the guides and staff, we suggest a cash tip of $300 to $400 per fisherman at the end of the week. U.S. dollars accepted.

CATCH AND RELEASE

To insure the best fishing possible, a strict catch and release policy is in effect.
